Problem:- This person is stuck because is not understanding what is expected of her in this lifetime....how she can make her life work....what would be the area she should direct herself in. At the time of consultation her life was very mediocre not a lot of finances were flowing her way. Her home life was not working with constant arguments and disloyalty from both her to partner, and from partner to her. She felt at odds with herself....some days she felt o.k other days felt very under the weather...her energies were very low so was finding it difficult to do the most simply tasks...the latter was becoming more prevalent and there were more bad days than good. She never felt on top of her life, her emotions where very stretched and at times uncontrolled. As she said “maybe that was the way life is, no-one seems to be happy, everyone seems stressed.

Answer: The answers are all in our Astrology and Numerology Charts....they are the blueprint of our lives. When knowing how to read them in the way we at the Healing and Teaching Haven teach, will give the answer to whatever is wrong in your life and how it can be rectified in the way the Universe wishes us to.....NOT IN AN EARTHLY WAY... THIS WAY USUALLY GIVES THE WRONG ANSWERS AS SO MANY HAVE FOUND OUT AND DOES NOT HELP IN THE LONG TERM. When working with any situation the Spiritual Way it will turn out well

The form of Astrology and Numerology taught in this Course is quite simple. It shows what must be accomplished and how if not doing it will cause life to be unfulfilling which in turn creates agitation AND IF NOT DEALT WITH IN THE CORRECT Spiritual Way stretches into all areas of our lives. Without these Charts we will never know if the path we are following is correct.

Many people get answers from their mind, the information that comes from this source can take us well off our path and is not until it has been followed does it show how wrong it was, as it either goes wrong, or just does not come together. Generally by that time much effort and money has been invested. Because we think something, does not make it correct....There are other ways and levels that bring these thoughts to mind and generally all trying to stop us making growth by sabotaging. These sabotaging thoughts making us think the path we want to move along is correct but after many frustrations, loss of finance and time turns out to be wrong.

The reason for this can be many but mainly it is because of FEARS...not wanting to have to face the fears that brought us to earth and learn the lessons connected to it. So subterfuge messages come to mind making us feel a particular path is the correct one, so pushes us down the wrong path. Only by knowing what the correct path is as shown by the Astrology and Numerology Charts will tell you if the thought you have had and the path you are thinking of following is the correct one.

I have counselled many people on what their correct path is.....but for one reason or another they decided to ignore the advise.....and consequently paid the price for moving along the wrong path. If you do not want this to happen to you on any issue that has to be dealt with then you need to consult your Charts.....only this will give you the correct answer.

Trying also to get answers from clairvoyants is also a bad idea.....they are notoriously wrong in giving direction or future predictions.....very few get it right. One of the reasons for this is it is ok to give advise and tell you what has already happened but we all have to use our own mind to find out what is the right way to go....Clairvoyants are not going to be allowed to give the answers....it is what we have been put on earth to find out for ourselves and move along that path.

.For some using their minds is their PATH. .Only when having these answers will life work as it should. These answers can only come from the Astrology and Numerology taught in this course....which is different from the Traditional Form and much easier to learn.....we can then see for ourselves what we have to do in any given situation to get it working right.

Following are the Astrology and Numerology Charts for the person we are dealing with. All the Symbols of the Planets and Signs are SYMBOLIC of the emotional and situational content we have come into the world to get Spiritual right. How they are enforced in our lives will be explained in the Course.
